

York County Library Foundation Donates Books To Library

Yorktown, Sept. 16 – The York County Library Foundation has donated two books to the York County Public Library as part of the Foundation’s “Perpetual Book” program. The first book, “The Saddlemaker’s Wife” by Earlene Fowler, was given in honor of Lela E. Busch. The second book, “Mr. Lincoln Goes To War” by William Marvel, was given in honor of Norman Walter. Presenting the books to Library Director Lucinda Munger, right, is Foundation President/Secretary Theresa M. Dery.

